

BANK OF BOTSWANA

Public Notice

APPOINTMENT OF DEPUTY GOVERNOR

His Excellency, the President, has appointed Mr Moses D Pelaelo as Deputy Governor of the Bank of Botswana for a period of five years with effect from February 1, 2006.

Mr Pelaelo joined the Bank in 1990 as Senior Bank Examiner in the Banking Supervision Department following a career of about 1 year and 6 years as Assistant Lecturer and Lecturer in accounting and management study programmes at the Botswana Institute of Administration and Commerce and University of Botswana, respectively. He was promoted to Principal Bank Examiner in 1991; then to Deputy Director in 1994 and to Director in 1996 in the Human Resources Department, where he served for a period of two years, responsible for the human resources and property management functions of the Bank. He transferred back to head the Banking Supervision Department in 1996, the position he held until 2003 when he joined the Bank for International Settlements in Basle (Switzerland) on secondment, where he has continued to expand and deepen his knowledge of banking regulation and supervision.

Mr Pelaelo graduated from the University of Botswana with a Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1983 and obtained a Masters degree in Business Administration from the University of Miami in 1987. He also attended a short-term programme on Macroeconomic Policy and Management at the Harvard Institute for International Development (USA) in 1996.
